Mizuho Bank Opens GIFT City Branch in India

Mizuho Bank (President & CEO: Masahiko Kato) today announced the opening of its GIFT City Branch in Gujarat International Finance Tec-City (GIFT City) in Gujarat, India. With the opening of the GIFT City Branch, Mizuho Bank's office network in India has expanded to six branches.

GIFT City is India's first smart city project, created to serve as an international financial and technology hub to promote the country's economic growth and competitiveness. GIFT City provides an environment conducive to enhancing services provided by financial institutions, including the provision of preferential tax treatment as well as the ability to handle foreign currency denominated loans, which are otherwise restricted in India.

Mizuho Bank has positioned India as a top priority country in its quest to expand its global business, and has been expanding functions to meet the needs of both local and global companies in India. The new GIFT City Branch will further strengthen Mizuho's capabilities and capacity to support clients in India.
