

Employee PROFILES

Mr. Firas Alfadda
Vice President – Investment Banking Lead

Professional Background:

Firas Al-Fadda is Leading the Investment Banking Division at Mizuho Saudi Arabia Company, Also, he is a member of the Compliance and Executive committee. With focus on realizing optimal business development, transaction sourcing & management, and relationship coverage. Firas is a member of Firas has over eleven years of diverse experience, predominately, in the commercial and investment banking domains, also, in the government sector. Prior to joining Mizuho, Firas worked at Alrajhi Bank as an Executive Manager - Structured Finance. Additionally, Firas held various roles in several entities, mainly at Samba Capital - Corporate Finance and Investment Banking Division, Banque Saudi Fransi - Corporate Banking Division and National Centre for Privatization and PPP - Financial Advisory Division.

Education

Firas holds a Master of Business Administration from University of Northampton, UK. Firas has also undertaken several professional financial programs and certifications throughout his career.