4 Capacity

- 4.1 Subject to Clause 4.2 below, you agree that you are dealing with us as principal, and not as agent, and will be responsible for all Transactions effected by or for you pursuant to and in accordance with these Terms of Business. We may charge, or otherwise take remuneration from, both counterparties and retain any profits, charges, benefits or other remuneration arising therefrom. To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, we will not be bound to account to you for the same or any part thereof or to notify you with respect to the same.

Instructions may contain viruses or other defects, may not be accurately replicated on other systems, or may be intercepted, deleted or interfered without the knowledge of the sender or the intended recipient. Neither we nor any entity in the Mizuho Financial Group make any warranties in relation to these matters. - (d) we may, at our sole and absolute discretion, notify you of any breakdown, malfunction, unavailability, interruption, error or failure of any electronic communication lines or of any transmission, telecommunications, or other electronic system that may prevent or delay the transmission of any Instructions to us.
- 5.5 You acknowledge that any Instructions, which are permitted to be given to or through any other member of the Mizuho Financial Group or their representatives outside of Hong Kong or Singapore (as applicable), are not received by us until such representative has forwarded such Instruction and we or our agent(s) have received such Instructions, as the case may be.
- 5.6 Unless we, in our sole and absolute discretion, decide otherwise or you give us specific and precise instructions to the contrary, Instructions are good for the day on which they are received by us and will lapse upon the market close of the relevant exchange(s) or market(s) on that day. If we receive your Instruction on a day: (a) which is not a Business Day; and/or (b) a day on which the relevant exchange or market is closed, the Instruction shall be treated as an Instruction received for execution on the next Business Day which is also a day on which the relevant exchange or market is open.
- 5.7 Subject to Applicable Laws, you agree that we have no obligation to accept, execute or cancel all or any part of any Instruction and may decline to accept or act on any Instruction without giving any reason. We shall have no obligation to act in accordance with your Instructions if we believe that such Instructions may result in us or you breaching Applicable Laws. You acknowledge that we shall not be held liable in any way for any loss, loss of profit or gain, damage, liability, cost or expense suffered or incurred by you arising out of or in connection with us declining to act on such Instructions from you or omitting to notify you of any such decision or action taken by us.

- 5.10 When carrying out an Instruction as your agent in respect of a Transaction, we shall use our reasonable endeavours to provide, or ensure that our agent(s) provide, you with "best execution" of an Instruction in accordance with Applicable Laws. You acknowledge and agree that we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, use algorithmic trading strategies to execute Transactions for you.
- 11.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing between us, you acknowledge and agree that any order you give to us to buy or sell Securities, derivatives and/or other investment products at a particular volume weighted average price ("VWAP") will be treated by us as an order to buy or sell (as the case may be) the Securities, derivatives and/or other investment products at that price (a "guaranteed VWAP order").

11.4 Facilitated Orders - Where we accept any guaranteed VWAP order or any other order for execution by us at a guaranteed price, you acknowledge and agree that such order will be handled by our facilitation desk and that we will execute the relevant Transaction either as principal or in a mixed capacity, partially as principal and partially as agent. If you do not wish to deal with us in this capacity for a specific order or otherwise, you should notify us accordingly in writing, in which case we will not be able to accept further guaranteed VWAP orders or other orders for execution at a guaranteed price from you. We may be able to assist you to execute other types of VWAP orders, but you should discuss this with us before sending any such orders to us.

11.5 OTC Transactions

- (a) Where we deal with you in over-the-counter (OTC) products, we will execute the relevant OTC Transaction as principal. Such OTC Transactions will be subject to such other terms and conditions as we may prescribe from time to time, and you may be required to enter into additional agreements with us.
- (b) Entering into an OTC Transaction may, under Applicable Laws, trigger reporting requirements and/or the requirement to clear the Transaction at specified central counterparty clearing facilities. In particular, you acknowledge that pursuant to global regulatory reform initiatives, regulators require reporting of certain trade data to increase market transparency and enable regulators to monitor systemic risk to ensure safeguards are implemented globally. For these purposes, you agree to provide all information, execute all documents and do all acts which we consider necessary or desirable to comply with such requirements.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms of Business and without prejudice to any other provisions of these Terms of Business, you hereby consent to the disclosure of information:
 - (i) to the extent required or permitted by any Applicable Law which mandates reporting and/or retention of transaction and similar information or to the extent required by any order or directive regarding reporting and/or retention of transaction and similar information issued by any authority or body or agency in accordance with which we are required or accustomed to act ("Reporting Requirements"); or
 - (ii) to and between us and other entities within the Mizuho Financial Group or any persons or entities who provide services to us or other entities within the Mizuho Financial Group, in each case, in connection with such Reporting Requirements.

You further acknowledge that disclosures made pursuant hereto may include, without limitation, the disclosure of information in respect of OTC Transactions including a party's identity (by name, address, corporate affiliation, identifier or otherwise) to any swap or trade data repository or one or more systems or services operated by any trade repository ("TR") and any relevant regulators and that such disclosures could result in certain anonymous OTC Transactions and pricing data becoming available to the public. You further acknowledge that, for purposes of complying with regulatory reporting obligations, we and/or other entities within the Mizuho Financial Group may use a third party service provider to transfer information in respect of OTC Transactions into a TR and that a TR may engage the services of a global trade repository regulated by one or more governmental regulators. You also acknowledge that disclosures made pursuant hereto may be made to recipients in a jurisdiction other than the Applicable Jurisdiction whose data privacy laws are not as stringent as those in effect in such Applicable Jurisdiction. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) to the extent that applicable non-disclosure, confidentiality, bank secrecy, data privacy or other law imposes non-disclosure requirements on transaction and similar information required or permitted to be disclosed as contemplated in this Clause 11.5 but permits you to waive such requirements by consent, the consent and acknowledgements provided herein shall be a consent by you for purposes of such law; (ii) any agreement between the parties to maintain confidentiality of information contained in these Terms of Business or in any non-disclosure, confidentiality or other agreement shall continue to apply to the extent that such agreement is not inconsistent with the disclosure of information in connection with the Reporting Requirements as set out in this Clause 11.5; and (iii) nothing in this Clause 11.5 is intended to limit the scope of any other consent to disclosure separately given by each party to the other party.

You represent and warrant that any third party to whom you owe a duty of confidence in respect of the information disclosed has consented to the disclosure of that information.

- (d) We may hedge some or all of the risk in respect of an OTC Transaction by entering into transactions with other entities within the Mizuho Financial Group and/or executing principal transactions in the relevant market.
 - (e) You should be aware that, under Applicable Laws, derivative position and reporting limits may be imposed. You should monitor compliance with such limits and make such reports as are required under Applicable Laws.
- 11.6 We may, unless waived by us and to the extent required by the Applicable Laws, provide you with confirmations, contract notes, statements of account and other information concerning Transactions and the Account(s). Any such confirmation, contract note, account statement or other information given by us to you in writing (including by electronic means) shall, in the absence of manifest error, be deemed conclusive and binding on you if not objected to within five (5) Business Days of the date of issue or such other period as may be specified.

11.7 Unless we specifically agree otherwise, we require all Transactions in Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products to be effected on a delivery against payment basis.

11.8 In respect of each Transaction, unless we are already holding cash or Securities, derivatives or structured products or such other relevant underlying investment products on your behalf sufficient to settle the Transaction and all applicable commissions, levies and duties, you will pay us cleared funds or deliver to us the relevant investment products in deliverable form by such time as we have notified you. If you fail to do so, we may, subject to Applicable Laws:

- (a) in the case of a purchase Transaction, transfer or sell the purchased Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products; and
- (b) in the case of a sale Transaction, borrow and/or purchase Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products in order to settle the Transaction.

11.9 You will be responsible to us for any and all losses, costs, fees and expenses resulting from your settlement failures and for any debit balance or other liability owing on any of the Account(s).

12 Acquisition of Securities in Public Offer / Placing

12.1 You authorise us, upon your instruction, to apply for the subscription or purchase of Securities in a public offer in respect of a new listing and/or placing of Securities of companies listed on an Exchange as your agent and for your benefit or for the benefit of the ultimate beneficiary, whether singly or in conjunction with applications of other clients or Mizuho Financial Group entities as a bulk application.

12.2 Subject to Applicable Laws, you acknowledge that we shall not be responsible for the accuracy or completeness of or any misstatement in any prospectus and other offering documents relating to a public offer and/or placing, copies of which are supplied by us to you, unless and to the extent directly due to any fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on our part.

12.3 In making such Instruction to us to apply for the subscription or purchase of Securities in a public offer in respect of a new listing and/or placing of Securities of companies listed on an Exchange, you confirm and declare that:

- (a) you have already read and understand the related prospectus, application forms and/or other relevant offering documents;
- (b) your application is subject to the terms and conditions of such prospectus, application forms and/or relevant offering documents (including the discretion of the relevant issuer to determine on the final pricing of the Securities) or, in the absence of any written offering documents, you fully understand the terms and conditions of the relevant subscription / purchase;
- (c) you are eligible to subscribe for or purchase the Securities and will comply with or have complied with all the terms and conditions as stated in such prospectus, application forms and/or other relevant offering documents or, in the absence of any written offering documents, will comply with or have complied with the terms and conditions of the relevant subscription / purchase;
- (d) we have the due authority to make such application on your behalf;
- (e) the application made by us on your behalf is the only application made, and the only application intended to be made, by you or on your behalf (for the benefit of you or for the benefit of the ultimate beneficiary) and you authorise us to disclose and warrant to the Exchange of the same on any application form (or otherwise) or to the issuer, seller and any other person as appropriate; and
- (f) you make all the representations, warranties and declarations required to be made by an applicant for Securities in the related prospectus, application forms and/or other relevant offering documents or, in the absence of any written offering documents, you make all the representations, warranties and declarations required to be made by an applicant on the terms and conditions of the relevant subscription / purchase.

12.4 You acknowledge that the confirmations and declarations made under Clause 12.3 will be relied upon by us, the Exchange, the relevant Regulator, and by the issuer, sponsor(s), seller, underwriters and placing agent(s), as appropriate, of the relevant Securities in deciding whether or not to make any allotment or allocation of Securities in response to the application made by us as your agent.

12.5 You acknowledge and agree that Applicable Laws, legal and regulatory requirements and market practice in respect of applications for Securities may vary from time to time and between different Exchanges and markets, as may the requirements of any particular new listing, issue or placing of Securities. You undertake to provide to us such information and such additional supplemental documentation and make such additional representations, warranties, confirmations, declarations and undertakings as may be required in accordance with such requirements as we may in our sole and absolute discretion determine from time to time.

12.6 You agree and acknowledge that the issuer, seller, underwriters and placing agent(s) of the relevant Securities have full discretion to reject or accept the application made by us on your behalf or to accept only part of the application. In case of rejection or partial acceptance of your application, no matter whether it is caused by reasons which are related to your application or not, neither we nor any Mizuho Financial Group entities shall, in the absence of fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct, be liable to you or any other persons as a result of such rejection or partial acceptance.

12.7 In case of a bulk application made by us on behalf of our clients, including you, you agree that:

- (a) if such bulk application is only accepted in part, we have the sole and full discretion to allocate the Securities among our clients, including you, on the basis elected by us (at our sole and absolute discretion); and
- (b) if such bulk application is rejected due to any non-compliance by you with the terms and conditions of the relevant application, subscription or purchase, any of the representations, warranties or declarations being incorrect and/or breach of the undertakings made by you or any other factors relating to you or your application, you shall fully indemnify us in accordance with Clause 20.

13 Short Selling

13.1 You acknowledge that in certain jurisdictions (including Hong Kong) uncovered short selling of Securities is unlawful, and that only certain designated Securities may be eligible for short selling.

13.2 You must notify us, at the time of placing Instructions to sell Securities, if the Instruction relates to Securities which you do not own or if the Instructions otherwise amount to a short selling order (as defined under Applicable Laws),

- otherwise we are entitled to assume for all purposes that the relevant sale is not a short sale.
- 13.3 Where you place Instructions to sell Securities via FIX message, you confirm and agree that the following tags in FIX protocol functionality constitute written confirmation and assurance from you that an order is a short selling order (as defined under Applicable Laws) and you have a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest the Securities in the purchaser of them:
- (a) Tag 54 = '5' (indicating "short sale"); and
 - (b) Tag 114 = 'N' (indicating "covered"),
- and if such tags are not used, we will treat such your Instructions to sell Securities as a long sale order.
- 13.4 We may, at our sole and absolute discretion, refuse to act on an Instruction to short sell Securities. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to request delivery of such confirmation or documentary evidence as we may deem necessary in relation to any short selling order (including, without limitation, a confirmation that you have a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest the Securities in the purchaser of them). If we inadvertently accept or execute any short selling order, we may at our sole and absolute discretion cancel the Transaction or (at your cost) obtain the Securities from the market or otherwise for delivery. You shall indemnify us on demand from any loss, liability, claim, damages, costs and expenses that we may suffer or incur as a result of you placing a short selling order.
- 14 Custody Service
- 14.1 To the extent you have requested that we provide the Custody Service and we have agreed to do so, we will establish one or more custody accounts for all Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products which you deposit from time to time with us in Hong Kong, Japan or elsewhere for safekeeping and you agree to the provisions in this Clause 14. Insofar as permitted under Applicable Laws, we may commingle such investments with other investments held by us or our nominee on behalf of our other clients.
- 14.2 Unless otherwise agreed, but subject to Applicable Laws, you hereby authorise us to hold any Securities, derivatives, structured products and/or other investment products on your behalf, (and where such investments are registrable) register, and/or deposit such investments in safe custody in a designated account with any custodian, bank, financial institution, intermediary, company or firm selected by us, in the name of us or in the name of a nominee appointed by us.
- 14.3 Where Securities are held by us or by our nominee on your behalf:
- (a) we will credit to the Account(s) all dividends and other benefits received by us in respect of such Securities held;
 - (b) we shall use our reasonable efforts to give you notice of any necessary information which we receive in relation to any calls, rights, benefits, entitlements or obligations attaching to or derived from such Securities which requires instructions from you. Subject to Applicable Laws, we shall have no obligation to notify you of any other matter(s) relating to such Securities except as aforesaid;
 - (c) we or our nominee may, but without any obligation or liability whatsoever, exercise any rights or perform any actions which may be exercisable in relation to any such Securities held for the Account(s), and where you have provided us or our nominee with any necessary instructions and executed any applicable authorizations or other documentation;
 - (d) we shall be under no duty to investigate, participate in or take affirmative action concerning attendance at meetings, voting or other rights attaching to or derived from such Securities except in accordance with your instructions;
 - (e) if we do not receive any instructions or in sufficiently reasonable time, we may, at our sole and absolute discretion, take or omit to take any action; and
 - (f) we or our nominee shall not be required to deliver to or return to you the identical Securities delivered to or deposited with us provided that the Securities actually delivered or returned to you are of the same class, denomination and nominal amount and have equal rank in every respect with the Securities originally delivered or deposited by you (subject to any capital reorganisation or conversion or other corporate action that may have occurred in the interim).
- 14.4 We shall have the right, exercisable at any time, to close any such custody account(s) maintained in your name and/or on your behalf without ascribing any reason for doing so at our sole and absolute discretion at any time.
- 14.5 Subject to any Applicable Law, we may deposit any cash balances held in any Account(s) with any financial institution(s) as we shall think fit (including with any member of the Mizuho Financial Group).
- 14.6 You hereby authorise us to place, withdraw and renew cash deposits in such currencies on your behalf and, in the exercise of such discretion, from time to time as we think fit, to debit the Account(s) for any such deposits placed or renewed and to credit the Account(s) for deposits withdrawn.
- 14.7 You agree that we may, at our option, retain all or part of the interest accrued on all amounts held by us for or on account of you or pay to you (either by way of accrual in the Account(s) or otherwise determined by us) interest on such amounts at such rate as we may in our sole and absolute discretion determine and notify to you (whether in writing or verbally).
- 15 Advisory Service
- 15.1 From time to time, we may discuss with you certain Transactions, Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products or provide you with analyses and/or research reports, recommendations, comments, observations, statements or suggestions thereon for general information.
- 15.2 You understand and accept that, notwithstanding that we shall exercise due care and diligence in providing you with information and any investment advice under these Terms of Business, you are responsible for making all investment decisions and Transactions are undertaken by you at your own risk and will be executed by us only after receiving Instructions from you. To the extent permitted under Applicable Laws, we shall not be liable for any investment decisions made by you or Instructions given by you. Subject to Applicable Laws, we are not under any obligation to review or challenge any Instructions given by you. We will not monitor any investments held in your Account(s) in relation to these Terms of Business.
- 15.3 We do not warrant to you, and you acknowledge that we are not obliged to make any representation or warranty, as to the value, merit or suitability of any Transactions, Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products.
- 15.4 None of our representatives or agents are authorised to provide any assurances or guarantees orally or in writing with respect to the performance of any Transactions, Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products. We do not guarantee any specific result or return on any Transactions, Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products in the Account(s), and you are fully aware that the value of such investment products may fall as well as rise. Further, we shall not be responsible for: (a) any errors of fact or judgment or any action lawfully taken or omitted to be taken except through any fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on our part; and (b) any loss of opportunity whereby the value of the investment products in the Account(s) might have increased or for any decline in the value of the investments in the Account(s), including currency exchange. To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, we shall not be liable for incorrect, misleading or omitted information in any prospectus or other material prepared by any third party in relation to any Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products which may be provided to you nor shall we have any liability for losses of any kind that are attributable to such incorrect, misleading or omitted information, unless and to the extent directly due to any fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on our part. In allocating investment products to individual asset classes, we may rely upon generally available information or information provided to us by third parties.
- 15.5 To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, you acknowledge and agree that we do not assume any fiduciary duty to you in providing you with any advisory services, and that, subject to Applicable Laws, we do not have any obligation to assess the suitability of recommendations, solicitation or any advice made or given to you in relation to Transactions, Securities, derivatives, structured products or other investment products.
- 15.6 You acknowledge that you have sufficient knowledge, expertise and experience of or in the relevant markets and products, to properly evaluate the risks associated with any investment decisions in relation to information and investment advice that we may provide you under these Terms of Business.

However, if we or any member of the Mizuho Financial Group act in circumstances where we or it has a material interest or a conflict of interest (whether actual or potential), we or such member of the Mizuho Financial Group will disclose such material interest or conflict of interest (whether in these Terms of Business or otherwise) and will take reasonable steps to ensure that you are treated fairly. 20.1 You acknowledge that, whilst we will exercise reasonable care and skill in providing the Service(s) under these Terms of Business, neither we nor any member of the Mizuho Financial Group nor any of our or their representatives or agents (each, an "Indemnified Person") shall be liable for any direct or indirect losses, damages, costs or expenses which you may incur or suffer (including from any Transactions executed by any brokers, agents and dealers) under these Terms of Business or otherwise arising from the provision of any Service(s) under these Terms of Business, unless and to the extent directly due to any fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of any of the Indemnified Persons. In no circumstances will any of the Indemnified Persons have any liability for consequential or special damages, including any loss of profit, loss of revenue or loss of business.

20.2 You shall fully indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Person from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, legal and other costs, and expenses (other than those directly resulting from fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of us) which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against any of the Indemnified Persons in performing the Service(s) under these Terms of Business or resulting from the default or breach by you of any provision of, or any of your obligations under, these Terms of Business.

You agree that any of the Indemnified Persons shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform any of our obligations hereunder, or for any delay, error, interruption or failure in any communication or correspondence (including, without limitation, the delivery of confirmations or transmission of orders) or for any other matters in relation to any Instruction and/or Transactions due to the breakdown, malfunction, unavailability, interruption, error or failure of any telephone, facsimile, or other electronic communication lines or of any transmission, telecommunications, computer or other electronic system, facilities or equipment, howsoever caused, or for any losses caused directly or indirectly by any condition or circumstances over which the Indemnified Person(s) do not have control, including but not limited to, acts and regulations of any governmental or supra national bodies or authorities or exchanges or clearing houses, war (whether declared or not), act of terrorism, earthquakes, natural calamities, industrial action, strikes or the failure of any third party for any reason to perform its obligations or any change in Applicable Laws.

21 Lien and Set Off

21.1 All Securities, derivatives, structured products, other investment products and monies held for your account, whether held by us or to our order through a third party and whether for safe custody or otherwise, and regardless of the currency, shall be subject to a general lien in our favour, and held as security for the full discharge and payment of all indebtedness and liabilities and performance of your obligations under these Terms of Business. You agree that we are, subject to Applicable Laws, entitled to sell or otherwise dispose of such Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products and apply the proceeds thereof in discharge of your obligations and liabilities under these Terms of Business.

21.2 Subject to Applicable Laws, we may at any time and without giving you prior notice, combine or consolidate any of your Accounts (whether held alone or jointly with any other person) and set off or transfer any Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products and monies to satisfy your indebtedness, liability or other obligation (whether actual or contingent, primary or collateral, secured or unsecured, or joint or several). In particular, you hereby authorise us to set off any amounts receivable by us from you, and any amounts payable by us to you, where such amounts arise from any Transactions due to be settled on a cash-against-delivery basis.

21.4 You agree not to charge or otherwise encumber any Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products and monies held for your account by us (or any rights in respect thereof) without our prior agreement. Any obligation which we may have to deliver any such Securities, derivatives, structured products and other investment products and monies to you shall in any event be conditional upon you having paid to us all commissions, fees, charges, expenses and liabilities owed to us by you under these Terms of Business.

- (g) you become insolvent or bankrupt or are unable to pay your debts or have filed a winding-up petition or are in the process of winding-up;
- (h) you breach any of the terms and conditions contained in these Terms of Business, including any Part hereto or the Additional Terms, as may be applicable to you;
- (i) any representation or warranty made in or in relation to these Terms of Business is or becomes incorrect in any material respect;
- (j) we have not received any Instruction from you and/or no Transactions have been conducted in the Account(s) or no Service has been provided to you for a period in excess of two (2) years; or
- (k) the occurrence of any event or circumstances in which we determine, in our sole and absolute discretion, that you may become unable or unwilling or which may have a material adverse effect on your ability, to perform or comply with any of your obligations under these Terms of Business.

- 22.3 Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or termination of the provision of any Service(s) under these Terms of Business, all amounts due or owing by you (whether actual or contingent) under these Terms of Business shall become immediately due and payable. We shall cease to have any obligations to provide any of the Service(s) to you in accordance with the provisions of these Terms of Business, notwithstanding any Instructions from you to the contrary.

- (d) New Clauses 11A, 11B and 11C shall be inserted before Clause 11:
 "11A Confirmations and Statement of Accounts
 11A.1 Without prejudice to Clause 11.6 of the Terms of Business, we will send to you a Confirmation in respect of each Transaction within the time required by and in accordance with Applicable Laws. Confirmations electronically transmitted or otherwise sent to you at the electronic mail address in our records and which you have notified us from time to time will be deemed to have been received by you.
 11A.2 Without prejudice to Clause 11.6 of the Terms of Business, and subject to clause 11A.3 below, we will provide you with statement of accounts on a monthly basis containing the particulars referred to in Regulation 40(2), of the SF(LCB)R, except that no statement of account shall be furnished to you if:

11A.6 We may in our sole and absolute discretion and without prior notice (whether oral or otherwise) to you, correct any Confirmation or statement of account at any time to rectify any error therein and pursuant there to take any action that we deem necessary.

11B Client's Monies and Assets

11B.1 You agree that in the event:

- (a) where payments are made prior to the date for settlement of purchases or monies are otherwise received by us on your account, we shall deposit such amounts into a trust account; and
- (b) where you transfer assets (including Securities) which are held by us or otherwise received by us on your account, we shall deposit such assets into a custody account.

11B.2 We may, for the purpose of depositing monies or assets received on your account which are denominated in a foreign currency in a trust or custody account (as the case may be), maintain a trust or custody account (as the case may be) with a custodian outside Singapore which is duly licensed, registered or authorised in the country or territory where the account is maintained.

11B.3 You acknowledge that we may:

- (a) place monies received on your account in an omnibus client trust account together with monies that we hold for other clients. As such, you further acknowledge that it would be administratively and operationally difficult (in view of the constant fluctuation of the aggregate balance in such account), to account separately for each of our client the interest due on their cash balance in the omnibus trust account as interest will be received on an aggregated basis. You agree to waive and relinquish in favour of us all claims for interest that may otherwise accrue with respect to your monies in any trust account, including without limitation, the omnibus trust account; and
- (b) deposit assets received on your account in an omnibus client custodian account, and such assets received on your account may be commingled with assets that are held in the omnibus custodian account for other clients. This may in some instances result in prejudice to you and you accept and consent to this. More specifically, your interest in your assets may not be identifiable by separate certificates, or other physical document or equivalent electronic records. However, we will and will ensure any custodian of ours will maintain records of your interest in the assets that have been commingled.

11B.4 You consent that we may hold monies received on your account on trust in the forms of investment stipulated in Regulation 20 of the SF(LCB)R. You further consent that all returns from the investment of your monies held in trust by us in accordance with the said Regulation 20 shall accrue to us.

11B.5 You shall provide written instruction to us in respect of any payment of your monies or assets in the trust or custodian account (as the case may be) to any party other than yourself, and such payment shall be subject to our prior approval.

11B.6 Without prejudice to Clause 11B.1 above, we may deposit money and assets received your account with an approved clearing house, a recognised clearing house, a member of an organised market or a member of a clearing facility, and / or withdraw moneys and assets received on your account from an approved clearing house, a recognised clearing house, a member of an organised market or a member of a clearing facility:

- (a) for the purpose of entering into, facilitating the continued holding of a position in, or facilitating a transaction in, any capital markets product on your behalf on the organised market;
- (b) for the purpose of the clearing or settlement of any capital markets products on the clearing facility for you; or
- (c) for any other purpose specified under the business rules and practices of the approved clearing house, recognised clearing house, organised market or clearing facility, as the case may be.

11B.7 In relation to any moneys or assets deposited or paid for by you in relation to an OTC derivatives contract:

- (a) you may request us to separate the books for any moneys/assets deposited or paid for or in relation to your OTC derivatives contracts from the books for assets deposited or paid for or in relation to the OTC derivatives contracts of any other client or clients, subject to additional costs that may be imposed by us on you and as set out in sub-paragraph (b);
- (b) if you make a request mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), we are entitled to impose additional costs on you, as may be notified to you from time to time, in order to process the request; and
- (c) in the unlikely event that we become insolvent and:
 - (i) where you have made the request mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), your moneys will not be available to our general body of creditors or for general distribution. As such, the moneys held on trust for you will not be subject to competing claims of our creditors generally. In addition, your moneys will be kept separately from the moneys of other clients and you will not be subject to the additional risks in sub-paragraph (ii) below; and
 - (ii) where you have not made the request mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), your moneys will not be available to our general body of creditors or for general distribution. As such, the moneys held on trust for you will not be subject to competing claims of our creditors generally. However, there may be additional risks associated with the fact that your moneys are commingled with the moneys of other clients, such as possible mutualisation of losses and a pooling of risk between the clients whose moneys are commingled in the trust or custodian account, including in the event of our insolvency.

11.C Margin

11C.1 You shall deposit, maintain in each Account and/or otherwise provide us with Margin in such form and amounts, at such times and in respect of such Account as we may from time to time in our sole and absolute discretion require, whether or not such requirement by us is identical to or reflects or is greater than any applicable Margin requirements under any Applicable Law or of any governmental or self-regulatory organisation in any jurisdiction (including any exchange) which is required to be maintained by us and/or you.

11C.2 Without prejudice to the foregoing, we shall reasonably endeavour to inform you to top up the Margin where required but it is your duty to make itself available to receive such information.

11C.3 You hereby acknowledge and agree that you shall provide separate Margin shall be provided in respect of each Account as we may require, and that the Margin in respect of each Account shall be treated as separate for the purposes of this Terms of Business. Upon your specific instructions, we may (but are not obliged to) transfer all or part of the Margin held by us for you in respect of any Account to any other Account or to utilise such Margin for any purposes as required by you.

11C.4 We may, in our sole and absolute discretion, with or without notice to you, vary the Margin requirements for any Account at any time and by any level, and may also stipulate that such Margin requirements shall apply to existing positions as well as new positions in the transactions affected by such variation. You acknowledge that we may, in certain market conditions, effect an immediate change in Margin limits or levels and/or require additional Margin to be deposited immediately or within a specified period of time which may be less than 24 hours, and waive any right to object on the grounds that such requirement is unreasonable. No previous Margin requirements shall set a precedent or bind us.

11C.5 If we determine that additional Margin is required, you shall deposit with us such additional Margin immediately upon demand, provided that, notwithstanding any such demand for additional Margin, we may at any time exercise our rights set out in Clause 22 of the Terms of Business. In making such determination in respect of the Margin provided for any Account, we shall not be required to take into consideration Margin held by us for you in respect of any other Account.

11C.6 You acknowledge that the Margin may be held and used to secure your performance of your obligations as well as for such other purposes as the Applicable Laws may permit or stipulate for the Transactions traded under any Account.

11C.7 All Margin shall be held by us, notwithstanding any provision or instructions to the contrary, as continuing security and shall be subject to a general lien and right of set-off in favour for us for any and all your liabilities to us (whether contingent or actual) under this Terms of Business or otherwise, and we may realise any of your Margin as provided for in this Terms of Business.

11C.8 We shall be entitled to deposit, pledge, repledge or loan any Margin in whatever form provided us or otherwise, and shall not be under any obligation to account to you for any interest, income or benefit that may be derived therefrom. No interest shall be paid on any type of Margin deposited by you with us and you acknowledge and consent that interest earned on the Margin deposited under this Terms of Business may be retained by us for our own account and benefit. We shall at no time be required to deliver to you the identical property delivered to or purchased by us as Margin for the Account(s) but only property of substantially the same kind and amount, subject to adjustments for quantity and quality variations at the market price prevailing at the time of such delivery.

11C.9 You shall at your own cost and at our request, execute and do all such deeds, acts and things (including without limitation, the performance of such further acts or the execution and delivery of any additional instruments or documents) as we may require for the purposes of this Terms of Business, including but not limited to perfecting our rights to the Margin provided by you.

11C.10 We may deposit in our segregated trust account or any other account, any of your Margin and may commingle such Margin with the cash and properties of our other clients.

11C.11 We may from time to time enter into separate agreements with you to govern specific Services or Transactions, which may also contain provisions relating to Margin requirements. In case of inconsistency between the provisions of this Terms of Business and the separate agreements in respect of Margin requirements, the latter shall prevail."

- (e) Paragraphs (j) and (k) of Clause 22.2 shall be deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following paragraphs:

"(j) we have not received any Instruction from you and/or no Transactions have been conducted in the Account(s) or no Service has been provided to you for a period in excess of two (2) years;

(k) the occurrence of any event or circumstances in which we determine, in our sole and absolute discretion, that you may become unable or unwilling or which may have a material adverse effect on your ability, to perform or comply with any of your obligations under these Terms of Business; and
